Foreword

This year has had a threefold meaning for us. It has been a year of campaigning for political leadership in our country; of facing the uncertain future; and of leaving some of the happiest moments of our lives.

We publish this yearbook now in order to bring back more vividly throughout the coming years memories of those friends whom we intend never to forget.

We go forth to fight for the freedoms and ideas which are our heritage.

> "Still o'er these scenes my memory wakes,
> And fondly broods with miser care:
> Time but the impression deeper makes,
> As streams their channels deeper wear."
>
> Burns

To Mr. Reynolds:

We, the Seniors of 1961, wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our principal, teacher and friend. His guidance has been superior, his understanding and patience have been unfailing. His wisdom has inspired each of us to seek higher goals and attain a higher degree of knowledge.

For all this and much, much more we can only say—"Thank you, Mr. Reynolds."

To Maedell:

We thank her for the help and understanding she has given us this year. Her willingness to help us and her patience with us have been unceasing. We will always remember her cheerful smile and pleasant disposition. "Thanks, Maedell, for everything."

Class History

In September, 1957, sixty-six Freshmen enrolled in Auburn High School. We could now enjoy the activities offered to the high school students. Members of our class joined many of the clubs, and some were placed on the Varsity Basketball and Cheerleading Squads. Mrs. Betty Jones and Mrs. Carolyn Smith were our homeroom teachers.

In 1958, our enrollment as Sophomores had decreased to sixty-one. We had as our homeroom teachers, Mr. George Guilliams, Mrs. Jean Nelson, and Mrs. Mary Dueno. During this year we labored strenuously at auction sales and bake sales to raise money for the coming year.

Our next year, 1959, we became Juniors with forty-eight members. Mrs. Mary Alma Board was our homeroom teacher. We published the "Auburn Echo," the school paper. We also received our class rings and gave the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom in the Dixie Caverns Ballroom. Our theme for the Prom was "Southern Plantation," and the motto was, "Save your Confederate money, men; the South's gonna rise again."

By 1960 we were Seniors, with an enrollment of forty-seven. We had as our homeroom teacher, Mrs. Annamille Prillaman. A school emblem was designed this year by a member of the Senior Class. This emblem will be used throughout the coming years. As Seniors we also went to Staunton, Virginia, to hear President Eisenhower speak at the Woodrow Wilson Memorial Services.

We, the Senior Class of 1961, wish to thank all our teachers through the years for the help and understanding they have offered us. We also would like to say good-by to our old friends at Auburn and wish them the best of everything. We hope we have left favorable impressions upon everyone.

ALFRED ALLEY
A secret is too little for one, enough for two, and too much for three.

A. CLARK ALTIZER
I never let my schooling interfere with my education.

FREDDIE DAVIS ALTIZER Mischievous and always ready to tease,
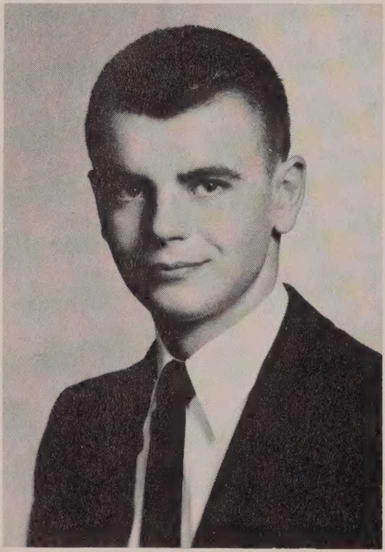
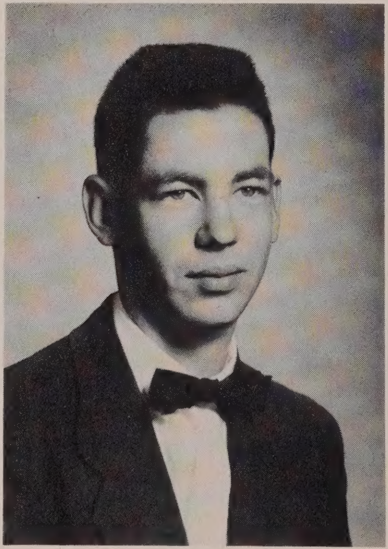
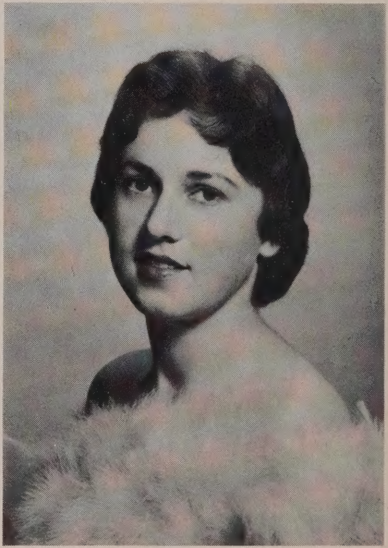
He's as carefree as a breeze.



WILLIAM TERRY ALTIZER
When there is mischief brewing,
He is doing the stirring.

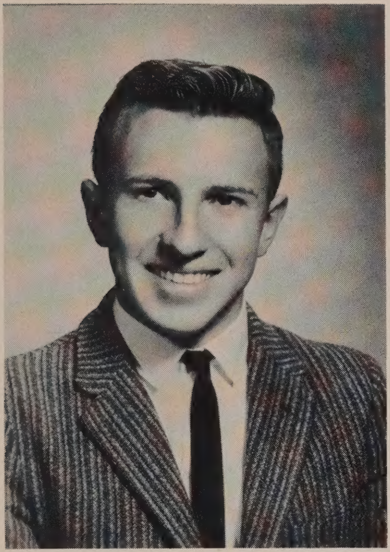


LARRY RICHARD BAIN
Think much, speak little.



NANCY LAKE BISHOP
So little done, so much to do.

Class



PAUL HAYDEN BOWER
No sinner, no saint perhaps,
but then the very best of chaps.

JERRY ALLEN BOWYER
All men are born free,
but some get married.

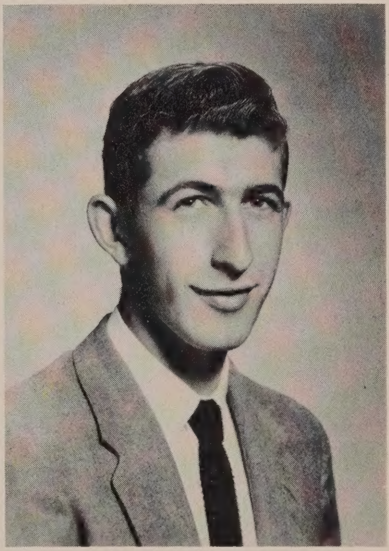
A good sport with plenty of pep, vhen she's around, boys—watch your step.

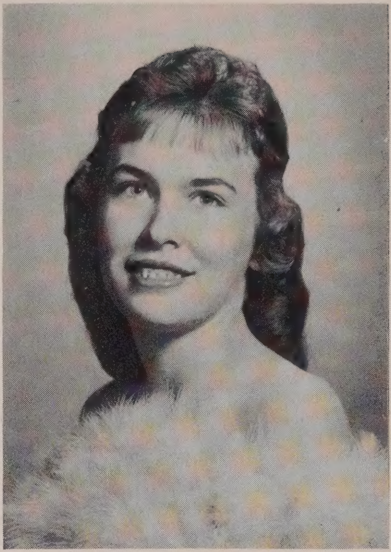
SUSAN ELLEN CALDWELL
A good heart is worth gold.

NANCY JAYNE CHAFIN
Pretty and small, and well liked by all.



FRED ALLEN CHANDLER, JR.
Be wiser than other people,
if you can,
but do not tell them so.

BARBARA JEAN COALSON
A smile is a whisper of a laugh.



VIRGINIA LUCY COLLINS
Love gives itself, it is not bought.

JEANETTE CONSTANCE CORRELL
She's not a genius, not even great, but she will be, you just wait.

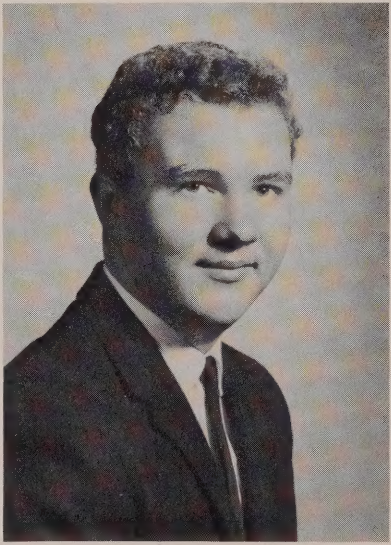
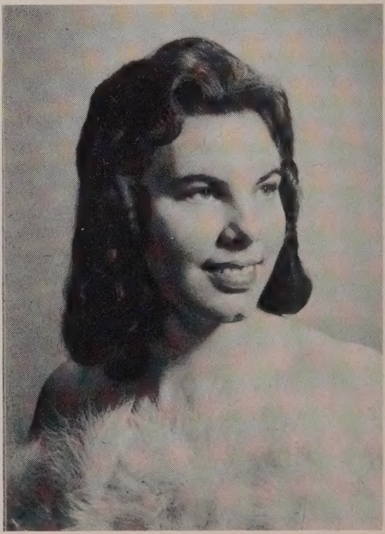
RUSSELL NORVEN CROSS
Take everybody's advice,
then do as you please.

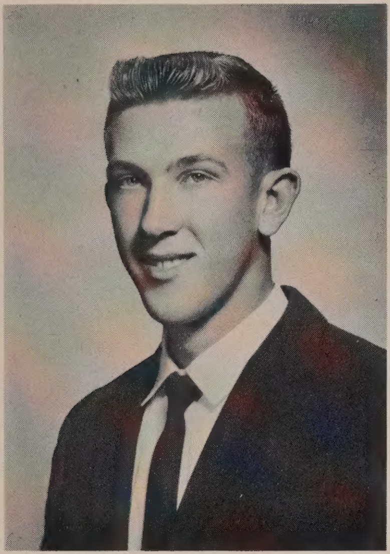


PAUL LEE CUMMINGS
Do as I say, not as I do.



FREDA ALICE DIXON
A good deed is never lost.

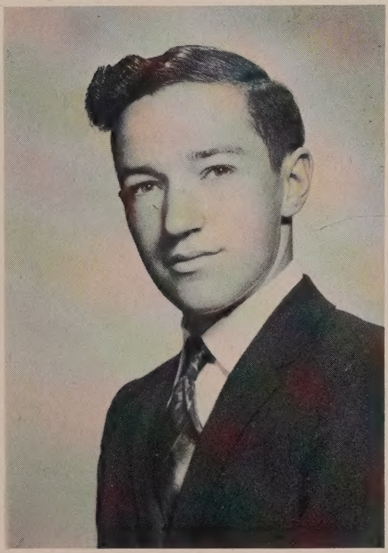
Class



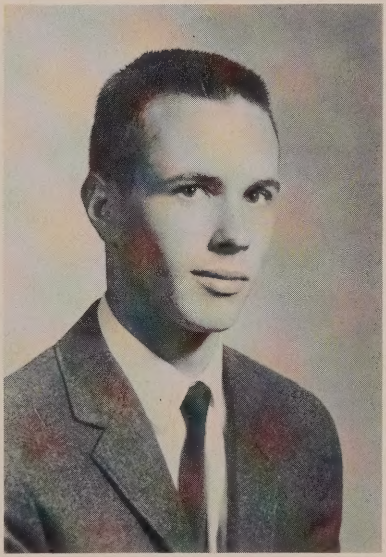
EDGAR JACKSON DOBBINS
God gives sleep to the bad in order that the good may be undisturbed.

VIRGINIA FAY DUNCAN
Grow old along with me, the best is yet to be.

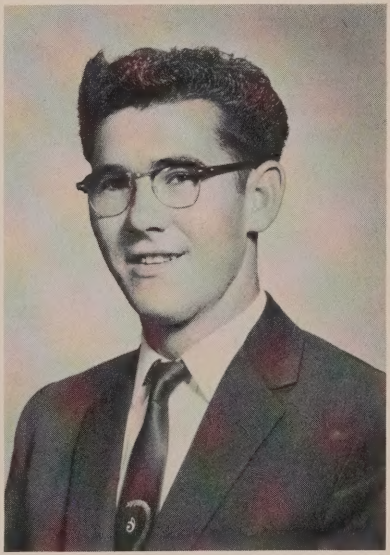
MARY ANN EANES
A happy marriage is the beginning of a new life.



LESLIE PAYNE FISHER
To be great is to be misunderstood.



ROBERT LANE GRAHAM
My idea of an agreeable person is one who agrees with me.



JAMES DAVID HOWELL
The Hydorgen bomb is here to stay, but are we?

BARBARA JEAN JONES
She is natural, she is shy,
she has mischief in her eye.

JERRY WILLIAM KENLEY Never again means until the next time.

JUDITH DARLENE KIRTNER
Love all, trust a few.

AUDREY JEAN LESTER
Beauty is as beauty does.

HELEN ANNA MARSHALL
She that doeth good in the beginning will profit in the end.

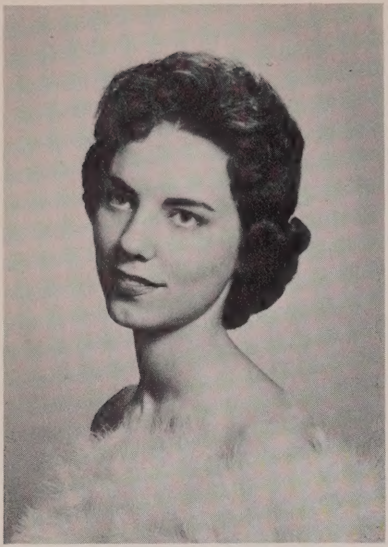
PEGGY JEWELL MARSHALL
She walks in the way of friendly hearts.

NITA DAWN MARTIN
In every rank, be it great or small,
she fills her place among them all.



PEGGY J. MARTIN
The greatest pleasure of life is love.

PATRICIA ANNE PHILLIPS
Sugar and spice and everything nice, one of these days she will be sprinkled with rice.

JAMES PHILLIP SALE
Not a worry nor care in the world have I,
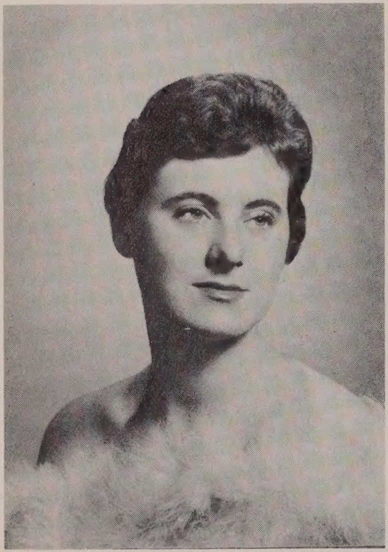
I'll enjoy this life till the day I die.



KAREN SUE SEMONES
After man came woman, and she has been after him ever since.

NOAH MASTON SIMMONS Doubt whom you will, but never doubt yourself.

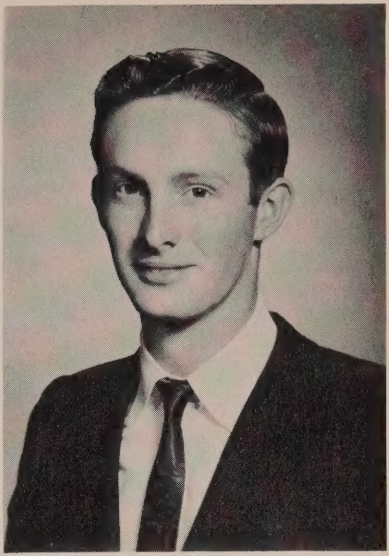
JULIA MARGARET SMITH
I may not be a genius, it's just that
I'm extremely bright for my age.

Class

LINDA LOU SOWERS
Oh! What men dare do.

CAROLYN LEE SUTPHIN
Small in stature, big in heart.



RONALD DEAN WEEKS
Save your Confederate money, men;
the South's gonna rise again.

PATRICIA HUFFMAN WHITLOCK·
The heart has April, too.

PHYLLIS MAE WILLIAMSON
She knows them all from out of town, she's one Senior who gets around.

Class Prophecy

As a concert pianist, I travel all over the United States. Occasionally I hear of or see some of the members of my 1961 graduating class from dear old AHS.

Walking down Broadway one night, I saw in lights the name of DEAN WEEKS and his Orchestra. Who would have thought that Dean would ever play anything except jazz or rock-'n'-roll? ROBERT GRAHAM, HAYDEN BOWER, and MASTON SIMMONS are members of the orchestra, which is famous the world over.

At home on my day off, I turned on my television just in time to see Miss HELEN LUCAS crowned Miss America of 1971.

A couple of weeks ago I decided to board a plane and go back home for a few days. I stepped up to the desk, and a familiar voice said, "May I help you?" It was LINDA SOWERS, who is working as the reservations clerk for American Airlines.

At the airport I saw CLARK ALTIZER, who is a commercial artist. He was on his way to New York to do some work there.

As the plane was about to take off, another familiar voice said, "Fasten your safety belts, please." I found the stewardess to be none other than PEGGY MARTIN. Peggy told me that ALFRED ALLEY was the pilot, with EVERETTE McPEAK as the co-pilot.

The plane arrived early in Roanoke, so I decided to have my hair done while I was waiting. I entered the "Beauty Isn't Everything, But It Certainly Does Help" Beauty Salon, owned and operated by my former classmate, JEANETTE CORRELL. While I was under the dryer, in walked PAT WHITLOCK bringing her daughter, Teresa, to have her hair cut. Pat told me that JUDY BRATTON and NITA MARTIN are physical education instructors at Auburn, and that LESLIE FISHER and JERRY KENLEY each own and operate a 500-acre ranch in Texas. Pat also told me that FRED ALTIZER owns a trucking firm, and that NANCY CHAFIN is a department store buyer for Miller and Rhodes, where FREDA DIXON is also employed as a typist.

After Pat left the salon, I picked up a magazine, and to my surprise, JULIA SMITH's picture was on the front cover, with her famous painting, "I don't want to fly; I want to be a worm." When I opened the magazine, I was surprised again, for there was a picture of JACKIE DOBBINS in a state policeman's uniform, and PAUL CUMMINGS wearing an FBI badge. They were being given special recognition for their outstanding work leading to the capture of Public Enemy No. 1, Joe Snooze.

Walking along the street, I met HELEN MARSHALL, who had just received her doctor's degree from the Medical College of Virginia. Dr. Marshall is planning to work at Roanoke Memorial Hospital, with BARBARA COALSON as her assistant. KAREN SUE SEMONES is already employed there as a laboratory technician. CAROLYN SUTPHIN is head nurse at Roanoke Memorial, with PEGGY MARSHALL and DARLENE KIRTNER also on the staff.

By now it was time to board the bus for Riner. Upon arrival, I found that Riner was quite changed. The biggest change was the addition of a hugh textile mill owned by TERRY ALTIZER, where FRED CHANDLER, RUSSELL CROSS, and JAMES HOWELL are employed as textile workers, LARRY BAIN is a factory mechanic, and BARBARA JONES, SUE McNIEL, VIRGINIA DUNCAN, MARY ANN EANES, and AUDREY LESTER are executive secretaries. Audrey told me that VIRGINIA COLLINS is a telephone operator, and that PAT PHILLIPS is an accountant at the textile mill. Audrey also told me that NANCY BISHOP is head of the Home Economics Department at Auburn, and that SUSAN CALDWELL is head of the History Department at Radford College.

While I was home, I attended an auction sale, where PETE SALE was the auctioneer. Here I saw LINDA LUCAS, who is a typist at Heironomous in Roanoke. Linda said that her brother, ALFRED LUCAS, is a French interpreter in the Army. She also said that JERRY BOWYER's family has increased to nine (all boys!). Now he has enough for his own baseball team!

Time passed quickly and soon it was time to go "back to the old grind." I am looking forward to my next visit home. Who knows what my former classmates will be doing then?

We started our eighth grade year in 1957-58 with sixty-two students. Our homeroom teachers were Mrs. Janell Dobbins and Mr. Robert Leighton. We soon became accustomed to the high school rules. Our main activity this year was a class party.

As Freshmen, the class had decreased to fifty-three students. This year we were divided into two groups. The girls had their homeroom in the library with Mrs. Mildred Lucas and Mrs. Florence Meridith as homeroom teachers. The boys were in the ninth grade homeroom with Mr. Manuel Reynolds as their homeroom teacher. Several of the students were members of the Varsity and Junior Varsity Basketball teams.

The next year we were welcomed to the Sophomore Class by Mr. George Guilliams. Our enrollment had decreased to fifty-one. Several became members of the Beta Club.

In September, 1960, we became Juniors. Mrs. Mary Alma Board welcomed us to a busy and unforgettable year. We received our class rings and are planning the Junior-Senior Reception.

Let's go back to 1958, when we were just entering Auburn High School on a new and wonderful experience. From the beginning we were a very small class with only thirty-eight members. With the leadership of Mrs. Jacqueline Shelton and Mr. Robert Leighton, our sponsors, we learned a great deal about this business of high school and many of our classmates entered the clubs and activities.

In 1959, thirty-two Freshmen were welcomed by Mrs. Mildred Lucas. We were led by the capable leadership of our class president who also served as reporter of the Student Council. We were honored when two of our class members were chosen for their outstanding scholastic ability.

As twenty-eight members of the 1960 Sophomore Class we are glad to have as our sponsor, Mrs. Florence Meredith. We hope our future years at Auburn will be as happy and successful as the past.

We entered the eighth grade class with sixty-six pupils. Not only were there students from Auburn but also from Bethel and Pilot making our class very large. We were divided into two sections. The boys had as their homeroom teacher Mr. Robert Leighton and the girls had Mrs. Jacqueline Shelton. Many of us were interested in basketball and formed an eighth grade team. We contributed our part to the building of the tennis court by selling school pins. At the end of the year, we had a bake sale which was very successful. This concluded our year as eighth graders.

We entered the Freshman Class in 1960 with sixty pupils. Because we were still a large group, we were again divided into sections. The boys had as their homeroom teacher Mr. George Guilliams and Mr. Sherwood Roudabush and the girls had Mrs. Mildred Lucas. Again this year many of the group were interested in basketball and quite a few went out for the teams and cheerleading. We also planned many activities which included another bake sale at the end of the year. Thus far our high school years have been very successful.

In September 1960, sixty-six pupils entered Auburn High School as eighth graders. Our class members came from many different schools, including Bethel, Pilot, Christiansburg, Pulaski County, Pearisburg, Willis, R.M.I. Beckly, West Virginia, and Junior High No. 1, Clifton, New Jersey.

We, as eighth graders, are now becoming acquainted with the activities and regulations of high school life. We were presented handbooks by the S.C.A. to help us better understand our responsibilities as high school students. Many of our classmates have joined the F.H.A. and Library Club. Also several have been placed on the eighth grade basketball squad.

We are looking forward to many more happy and prosperous years at A.H.S.

The Student Co-operative Association is a democratic organization in two bodies, the Executive Committee and the Student Council, which are composed of representatives from each class who try to improve conditions in the school according to the needs and wishes of the students in co-operation with the administration and faculty. This year the Auburn Student Council is a member of the National Association of Student Councils. We are proud to have our previous president of 1959-60, Terry Altizer, serving this year as state president.

The Student Council's main project this year is completing the tennis court project. It sponsors the Cheerleaders Hop, Faculty basketball game, White Christmas program, the magazine campaign, and Slave Day. It also acts as head of all other school activities.

To quote the words of the Beta Club Song, "The Beta Club's for leadership, for loyalty, and truth; The Beta Club's for fellowship, a guide and help to youth." These are the purposes of the Beta Club—the promotion of honesty, service, and leadership.

The qualifications for membership in the Beta Club are superior scholarship and character, creditable achievement, and commendable attitude.

After a student has been elected to membership, he must maintain a "B" average and give evidence at all times of personal conduct worthy of a Beta Club member. He shall subscribe to the following pledge:

"I solemnly declare that I shall always strive to hold fast to the principles of honesty; to constantly endeavor to maintain a creditable record; to cultivate in my life and conduct the principles which The National Beta Club is organized to encourage. I further pledge myself to co-operate with the members of this club in the promotion of a sense of individual responsibility to our school, community, state, and nation; to make right the master of might; and to consecrate our fellowship to mutual helpfulness and to the betterment of our fellow students."

Any student who is regularly enrolled in a business subject or subjects in Auburn High School is entitled to become a member of the Auburn Chapter of Future Business Leaders of America.

The purposes for which this organization is formed are:

1. To develop competent, aggressive business leadership.
2. To create more understanding and interest in the intelligent choice of business occupation.
3. To strengthen the confidence of F. B. L. A. members in themselves and in their work.
4. To encourage members in the development of individual projects and in establishing themselves in business.
5. To encourage members to improve their homes and community.
6. To develop character, train for useful citizenship and foster patriotism.
7. To participate in cooperative effort.
8. To encourage improvement in scholarship and promote school loyalty.
9. To encourage and practice thrift.
10. To establish and improve standards for entrance upon office occupations.
11. To encourage the development of organized recreational activities.
12. To develop an understanding and close relationship between the business community and the school.
13. To promote F. B. L. A.

F. B. L. A. projects for the 1960-61 school year included sponsoring a radio program, a March of Dimes campaign, and the Miss Auburn High School beauty pageant.

The Auburn Band is composed of elementary and high school students.

They have been invited to participate in the following events: Band Day at University of Virginia, the Roanoke Shrine Football game, the Christiansburg and Radford Christmas Parades.

A Spring Concert is always held to display the talents of the band members and the entire band.

The Band Booster Club works jointly with the band to aid financially. This year the uniform project has been in effect full force. It hopes to outfit the band in new uniforms this year.

Join the band and go places.

The F.F.A. or Future Farmers of America is a national organization of boys who are interested in farming and are studying vocational agriculture in high school. These boys study practical farming methods, principles of leadership and co-operation, and put these principles into use in their homes and community. This well known organization is striving to raise the standards of living in rural America.

As a square dance team, we have enjoyed many experiences. We have performed at numerous events as entertainment, entered various talent contests, and appeared on television. We paid for the sign, "AUBURN HIGH AND ELEMENTARY SCHOOL," on the front of the school from prize money that we earned.

We would like to thank our sponsor, Mr. Reynolds, for taking interest in us. We owe all we are as a square dance team to him. Our experiences as the Auburn Square Dancers are ones that shall never be erased from our minds.

Safety Patrol

School safety patrols are designed to provide protection for all children on their way to and from school. The safety patrolman is an assistant to the bus driver in maintaining order and preventing accidents on buses and in assisting school children crossing highways. Patrolmen are identified by white belts and badges which they are given to wear. It is most important that the patrolman set a good example for all the pupils with whom he associates. In order to do an effective job, the patrolman must have a proper understanding of his duties and responsibilities. When he performs with diligence and consistency the duties which are his, his fellow students and all others concerned will feel forever grateful for the services he has rendered.
